From the Rabbi By: Rabbi Betsy Torop

Pause, Breathe, Reflect... Repeat

I love summer. There are lots of reasons for this, but first and foremost is the slower pace. I know that for many people the rhythm of home and professional life does not necessarily change during the summer. For synagogues, the feel of summer is decidedly different – a period of time when some escape to cooler climates for several months, a period without Religious School and without major holidays (except of course for the most important holiday – Shabbat!).

During the year, the cycle of holidays and b'nai mitzvah, classes and meetings, community events and life cycle needs often results in hurdling through each week, each month. The opportunity to reflect, to question, to think about the bigger questions is rarely present – not just because there aren't enough hours, but because it's hard to slow down enough to breathe, to think about the big picture, to imagine. I love the slower pace of summer because it provides the time and space to do those things – things that are all too hard to do during the year in a congregation as busy and dynamic as Beth Shalom. The slower pace doesn't mean there is less to do – quite the contrary. But the doing is different over the summer. As we move into summer and planning for next year, these are the questions that I have begun to consider.

- What is the meaning that members receive from belonging to Beth Shalom?
- How can we better learn the stories and journeys of the people we sit next to in synagogue or chat with in the hallway on Sunday morning?
- As we approach the 25th anniversary of Congregation Beth Shalom in 2015, what is there about CBS that we should
 - celebrate and strengthen?
- What is the gift that CBS offers to you... and how can we make sure that everyone receives these gifts?
- How can we make involvement more accessible and meaningful?

Understanding the answers to these questions is not about satisfying some idle curiosity. These are a few of the questions that help us figure out what we want to be as a community and how we can continue to work toward realizing that vision. It is all too easy to assume that the answers to these questions are obvious, that we know what our members are thinking and wanting, and to plan accordingly. But true understanding comes through relationship and dialogue. I want to hear from you – email, phone, coffee or lunch... let's talk. That's what summer can be.

CBS Summer Temple Office Hours

June 16-August 15 10 a.m.—2 p.m.

From the President - Jeff Newman

Take the Jump With Me

I am honored to be your new President of Congregation Beth Shalom. For those of you whom I have worked with before, I look forward to continuing our relationship. For those of who do not know me yet, I look forward to starting our relationships. My goal is to enhance what the presidents before me have done for our Temple community. My wish is that, at the end of my term, I leave this Temple a stronger, more compassionate community.

In taking this position, many congregants have asked why — why would you want the (fill in the blank) of being President of the Temple? Why commit so much time when you can do other things that are more enjoyable?

I am a Bar Mitzvah boy of 1974.

I have listened to our Rabbi (and other leaders) talk to our Bar and Bat Mitzvah teenagers. They talk about how these teens are starting their Jewish journey and how they are now part of the community — how they can now add their talents for the betterment of our Temple family. I have seen that puzzled look in the eyes of the b'nai mitzvah teens, trying to understand how that applies to them, trying to understand that they have talents besides memorizing Torah.

I was that skeptical boy back in 1974 who only wanted to get to the party. I only wanted to be “on stage” and perform. I only cared about the presents and accolades I was going to receive after this long Rabbinical speech. It took me 25 years to learn not to be selfish, to understand the Jewish commitment and to finally act upon it. I finally understood that being Jewish was not a cocktail party joke or eating smoked salmon. I finally knew I wanted to give back to my the faith that enriches my life. It took me 25 years to realize that to be part of something bigger, you must do your part.

While at Congregation Beth Shalom, I've experienced several personal firsts: I became a teacher of 5th grade for 7 years,

Treasurer, and now President. I have been told that The Kibbitzer articles should lay out what you want to accomplish and where we as an organization are headed. In that spirit, these first articles will be about the vision I (and the board) have for our temple. I want to help reshape the community culture of our Temple. So, again in that spirit, I impart my first thought:

Sometimes you have to jump off the cliff, knowing that the Temple family will not let you fall. When I became treasurer, I had Peter, Jon, Sheila, Kevin, David, Rabbi, Hank, Mags, the Finance Committee, and all the committee chairs making sure I did not fall too far. They were my safety net that I learned to trust. I learned so much about myself and my own talents I never knew I had. I enjoyed my treasury years, becoming part of the fabric of our Temple — in giving back, in jumping off the cliff and not falling.

That is my first promise to you: we (your Temple family) will not let you fall when you commit to helping us. Choose your own path, find a temple need, an interest or a talent you want to nurture — something that can enrich our community — and give it a try. Trying is a noble, selfless act that is a mitzvah no matter what the outcome. Congregation Beth Shalom will appreciate the effort and the courage in taking that leap of faith.

Be that Bar/Bat Mitzvah and get involved.

Take the jump with me.

Erev Shavuot — June 3, 7-9 p.m.

Feed your Eyes, your Mind and your Stomach!

Shavuot celebrates the giving of Torah at Mt. Sinai. It is the beginning of all subsequent Jewish learning and understanding — the values, teachings and ideals that have defined our people.

Our interactive Shavuot study will use a series of thought-provoking posters and art works to discuss key Jewish ideas such as the source of knowledge, the meaning of community and the nature of miracles. We'll begin with a brief service, followed by study, discussion and traditional Shavuot cheesecake and dairy desserts.

KOLOT SHALOM NOTES

Wow! What a fast year we've had in the choir. I hope you've had an opportunity to join us in song, especially at the most recent event, our Evening of Jewish Music.

Kudos to all our members: Anna Brubaker, Keren Vergon, Gail Verlin, Sandy Santucci, Lauren Weisman, Cynthia Goldstein-Hart, Jamie Karr, Milt Newman, Steve Feldman, Brian Slater and Dave Friedman.

We'd like to offer an enormous thanks to our adopted member, Chuck Wirick from Sun City Center, for all his assistance in accompanying and directing.

The show started with some of our favorite Israeli tunes and folk melodies: Am Yisrael, Tumbalalaika, Jerusalem of Gold, Artza Alinu and Heiveinu Shalom Aleichem.

Next our members had their moment in the limelight, singing songs from Broadway or Yiddish melodies. And we finished by singing a medley of songs from Oklahoma, Oliver, Les Mis, Phantom, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, Evita and Guys & Dolls.

To quote another beloved show, State Fair, "It was a grand night for singing." And I will add, for eating. Thank you Phyllis Newman and everyone who contributed to such a delicious potluck dinner.

Mazel Tov!

MITZVAH DAY 2014

Congregation Beth Shalom takes great pride in announcing that our annual Mitzvah Day (a day to embrace our obligations to help others) occurred on April 27 and was very successful. Members of the temple found that this was a great time to bond with their children as they all worked together on this very special day. The enthusiasm of the group made me very proud to be chairperson of such an uplifting occasion.

On behalf of the social action committee, I thank all who contributed to this most successful event.

Education - Amy Weinstein

I would like to take this opportunity to thank those who make our religious school a wonderful place to learn. First and foremost, Rabbi Torop. Through the years you have always been a huge supporter of our school. Thank you for the wisdom you share and the patience you bring each and every week. Our students learn to embrace traditions and are open to learning partly because we have such a hands-on, approachable leader. This is evident from our youngest learners to our confirmation class. I know I have personally and professionally benefited from working so closely with you these last eight years. Thanks to our dedicated teachers. I certainly acknowledge how much you do. Thanks to Karen Blanchard, who ensures we have effective curriculum and appropriate holiday programming for our students.

We provided many of our students supplemental material over the summer. We hope that they will have the opportunity to continue working on their Hebrew these next few months. Please use the materials, online resources and Shabbat services to keep their acquisition of Hebrew strong. If you would like some additional ideas for the summer months, please feel free to contact Rabbi Torop, Karen or me.

HAPPY SUMMER!

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions/concerns/comments regarding your child's religious education at Congregation Beth Shalom.

Amy Weinstein- awine007@msn.com (813)285-9251

From the Chairperson

First, as outgoing chairperson for our adult education committee, I wish to say thanks to the members of my committee with whom I served for their interest, ideas, and assistance in presenting you with a host of programming over the past year. My appreciation is also extended to Mags, our office administrator, for her assistance in all of the tasks she performed, especially in the technical help she provided with audio-visual equipment. A special thank-you is extended to Sandy Santucci, without whom our Scholar-in-Residence luncheon would have been impossible to deliver.

Second, I encourage you to look for future adult education offerings in the coming months. There is nothing that compares to adults sharing, learning, and stimulating one another's minds over topics which may not be found elsewhere.

Last, I hope that the past year's adult education offerings were enjoyed by those who attended them. Please consider becoming part of the adult education committee. It's your opportunity to contribute in a meaningful way.

Janice Perelman, Chairperson

Membership — Rudina Richter

First of all, I want to thank our congregational Board of Directors for all the stellar leadership shown in this last fiscal year, in spite of the many challenges and obstacles that had to be navigated. Hank Mart has done a magnificent job as CBS President these last two years, and we all owe him a debt of gratitude. Similarly, we all need to thank those Board Members and committee chairs stepping down after their duties have been served: Steve Slavkin, Zsa Lobel and Janice Perelman. Without the willingness of you and those like you, our congregation would not be the active and vital organization that it is. Thank you all for your service.

I am very pleased to be able to introduce our newest congregational member, Marion Mehrer. Marion is an Executive Recruiter and Online Marketing Consultant who works from home. She is interested in participating in adult choir, women's groups and youth group activities. She has skills and talents in editing/proofing and online marketing and has a huge passion for working with kids, especially those of middle school and high school age. Please look for Marion at Temple events, introduce yourself, and help her get integrated in Beth Shalom congregational life.

Remember, we are all responsible for being Goodwill Ambassadors for our wonderful Temple.

SUMMER READING "LITE"

"Eating My Words: An Appetite for life"

By Mimi Sheraton

Thursday, July 17, 7:30

CBS Page Turners are doing some "lite" reading this summer! Join us as we discuss Mimi Sheraton's hilarious memoir about the life of a food critic.

Mimi Sheraton was born into a food-loving Jewish family in Brooklyn. Her mother was an excellent cook and her father was a commission merchant of a wholesale produce market. Growing up, she was surrounded by talk of good food and cooking, where to find the best fruits and vegetables and how to recognize them. Though food was always her love and her hobby it did not immediately become her vocation. Find out with us how she became the most revered and feared customer of New York's finest restaurants.

Join Page Turners for some fun summer reading as we examine this entertaining and candid memoir of the doyenne of food critics who provides a heartfelt and poignant look at the events of her extraordinary life.

JEWISH COLLEGE BOUND

Help Hillel Reach Every Jewish Student in America

Most people think the biggest challenges for Jewish life on campus are anti-Israel attitudes, anti-Semitism, and missionaries. In fact, the biggest challenge Hillel faces is how to find the Jewish students in the first place.

In an effort to address this challenge, the Suncoast Hillels in partnership with Hillel International have taken its Florida program to a national level, creating a website to help engage every Jewish student at every college and university in the country before they arrive on campus.

Help Hillel reach every Jewish student in America here:

Donations

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180 and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $250. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in the Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

Babysitters
