From the Rabbi

Jewish history is an enormous subject. Encompassing thousands of years and virtually every continent, tracing the history of our people is a monumental task. Some people tell me that they are fascinated by history – the dates, the amazing people, the twists and turns of fate. Others tell me that they find it dry and hard to digest.

In reality, Jewish history is not an isolated subject. The study of Jewish prayer or texts, rituals or clothing, music or holidays leads to an exploration of Jewish history. Moreover, Jewish history is like a travelogue – taking us from one country to the next – with all of the challenge and adventure that implies.

And, of course, Jewish food is a study in Jewish history as well. Take the bagel. The noted cookbook author Joan Nathan writes that the bagel, derived from the German word “to bend” is a descendant of the pretzel. “The boiled and baked roll with a hole dates possibly from the Roman period . . . Eventually, the bread worked its way to Poland and Russia. Today, in Cracow, where some say the present-day form of bagel was born, the bagel is alive and well, sold on many street corners.” In this same cookbook (Jewish Cooking in America) Nathan shares a recipe for Guava Mandelbrot. The recipe comes from a Cuban grandmother who fled the programs, arrived in Cuba to await a visa to the United States, and decided to stay. In Italy, eggplant has been called “a Jewish fruit” perhaps because Jewish merchants who had tasted it in their travels in the Middle or Far East carried a few seeds to Italy. Learning about food goes well beyond the food itself– it is about Jewish culture and survival and history.

That’s what makes our upcoming weekend (October 16-17) with our Scholar-In-Residence Rabbi Debbi Prinz so important. It’s not only that she talks about chocolate (one of my personal favorites as many of you know!). Rather, chocolate is the vehicle to discuss fascinating Jewish stories – from the Colonial settlers in early America to the French aristocracy. Through the story of chocolate we can see how Jews interacted with their neighbors and many other features of Jewish life through the ages.

We live in an age of heightened attention to what we eat. The farm to table movement, community gardens, the emphasis on simple food with no artificial ingredients – all of these are a reminder that food conveys values and tells a story. That has always been the case for us as Jews. From the saying of havotzi, to the observance of kashrut, to the embracing of precious family restaurants – each meal is more than just food for our body. It can also nourish our Jewish souls and spirits – even a luxurious treat like chocolate. Hope you’ll take this fascinating Jewish journey on the chocolate trail with us.

Programming for the Scholar in Residence weekend includes the following events:

Friday Night, October 16 at 7:45 p.m.

North American Colonial Traders Dip into Chocolate: The Gomez and Lopez Stories

Saturday, October 17 at 10:00 a.m.

What is the Best Chocolate: Our Jewish Values. This discussion focuses on our Jewish choices in our chocolate purchases.

Saturday, October 17 at noon—A catered lunch for all sponsors with Rabbi Prinz

Saturday, October 17 at 7:00 p.m.—Jews on the Chocolate Trail—Cost is $20 per person. Treat yourself to a presentation on Jews on the Chocolate Trail, followed by a wine reception and chocolate tasting.

From the President - Jeff Newman

Lowered Expectations

A very wise man said once, "If you don't expect things, you won't be disappointed."

I have heard that expressed many times in my life and up to a few weeks ago interpreted this the same. On the surface we protect ourselves from feeling badly towards others since expectations fall short. We may constantly feel let down because our expectations are often greater than what people can deliver with their capabilities, time and resources.

Unfortunately our disappointment towards these people causes us to resent, belittle and diminish others. I see this in temple life – we expect so much time and resources from people who have a finite amount and time and resource. Ask me to do mechanical work and you will be disappointed. We must continually remind ourselves that we are doing the best we can and our heart is in the right place.

My new preferred interpretation of "if you don't expect things, you won't be disappointed" is that it allows gratitude for others. Everything a person does can be embraced with gratitude for the work the person did. I have gratitude for all the little things each temple member does for CBS.

If we can see the gifts of love for our temple, not the expectation of being a temple member, imagine how much more caring, loving, and gracious of a family we will be. Gratitude humbles and warms my heart, and it is my New Year's hope that all of us are warmed and humbled by the acts of loving kindness towards our temple family.

L'shana Tovah and thanks for your wisdom, dad.

Lifelong Learning—Sheila Fishman

During the weekend of October 16, the Lifelong Learning Committee will be presenting Rabbi Deborah R. Prinz to our congregation as part of the Scholar in Residence program.

Rabbi Prinz's book, On the Chocolate Trail: A Delicious Adventure Connecting Jews, Religions, History, Travel, Rituals and Recipes to the Magic of Cacao, was published in 2013 by Jewish Lights and is already in its third printing. Rabbi Prinz lectures about chocolate and religion around the world. The book is being used in adult study, classroom settings, book clubs and chocolate tastings. Prinz blogs at Jews-OnTheChocolateTrail.org, The Huffington Post and The Jew and the Carrot. This project stirs age-old passions for chocolate and religion using information gathered from travel in several countries, including Belgium, Egypt, England, France, Israel, Italy, Mexico, Spain, Switzerland and the United States. It spans several cultures, countries, centuries, and religions, exploring how faith traditions share consumption, ritual and business interests in chocolate.

Programming for the event includes the following:

Friday Night, October 16 at 7:45 p.m.

North American Colonial Traders Dip into Chocolate: The Gomez and Lopez Stories

In Colonial North America Sephardi refugee merchants such as Aaron Lopez in Newport Rhode Island, the Gomez family in New York, and others dipped deeply into trading, retailing and processing of chocolate

Saturday, October 17 at 10:00 a.m.

What is the Best Chocolate: Our Jewish Values

This discussion focuses on our Jewish choices in our chocolate purchases. A look at criteria for purchasing the best chocolate from several perspectives, including sustainability and fair labor practices.

Saturday, October 17 at noon

A catered lunch for all sponsors with Rabbi Prinz

Saturday, October 17 at 7:00 p.m.

Jews on the Chocolate Trail-Cost is $20 per person

Treat yourself to a presentation on Jews on the Chocolate Trail, followed by a wine reception and chocolate tasting. Proceeds support programming at Congregation Beth Shalom of Brandon. Come in a festive attire and with a festive attitude.

This evening's talk about Jews and chocolate melds an enjoyment of chocolate with an exploration of chocolate's worldwide Jewish narratives and rituals, unwrapping tantalizing new themes. Delight your mind and your taste buds as this talk unscrambles this Jewish chocolate trail spanning several centuries and countries. This story reflects the resourcefulness and resilience of these Jewish chocolate makers and lovers.

KOLOT SHALOM NOTES

L'Shanah Tovah 5776!

What a wonderful beginning we've had at Beth Shalom of Brandon. The messages of our New Year rang out with the singing of our Cantors, Choir, Soloists, Accompanists and Shofar Blowers (Ba'alei Tekiah). They arrived in the words of our Rabbi, our President, Bima Honorees and our new Mishkan Hanefesh.

As we recall these Days of Awe, we wish to thank all those who brought such joy to the holiday season. I specifically would like to thank the musicians who brought the gift of melody to our services:

One of the definitions of a shofar is something that gives us a sense of incising or more clearly "cutting or burning into." May the shofar, the music and the words spoken at our High Holy Days burn deeply into our hearts and souls and remain ever in our thoughts.

A Very Happy New Year to you all.

Joan Frankel

Education - Amy Weinstein

Our School is off to a great start! We began the school year with a welcome back breakfast sponsored by the Parent Association (PA). Thanks to Michelle McCormick for her dedication, support and enthusiasm as she begins her term as our PA Chair. Please contact Michelle if you are interested in being part of our very active Parent Association.

As of 10/1/15, our school currently has 48 students enrolled in grades K-7. We have approximately 15 expected for our Confirmation Program which includes grades 8-10. We are delighted to have 11 new students in our Sunday School Program

This is only my second article of the new school year and we have already celebrated Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur and Sukkot. I understand that the High Holidays along with Labor Day had our start of school inconsistent. I am thrilled that we have every Sunday and Wednesday with our students in October. Please help us make the most of this time by having your child attend each week. Remember, class begins at 9:30AM Sunday mornings and 6:15PM on Wednesday nights.

As always, please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions/concerns/comments regarding your child's religious education at Congregation Beth Shalom.

The Social Action Committee has placed a plastic bin in the hallway for our congregants to help fill with small toiletries and small bottles of water for our CARE bags. The toiletries are the size of those you get in hotels (hint hint), or a little larger. These may include shampoo, soap, skin cream, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrush, comb, sanitary items etc. We are also collecting small bottles of water, small bags of peanuts, peanut butter crackers. Start contributing now and help us make this project a success. This would be a great way to get your kids involved. Give them a few items to place in the bins each Sunday when they come in for school. They'll love watching the bins fill up and know that they helped.

The High Holy Day Appeal for 5776 is open through the end of January 2016. To make a contribution, please contact the office. This does not include donations made through the Book of Remembrance or Adopt-a-Book Campaigns, nor does it include non-members. If there are any errors or omissions to this listing, please notify the office as well.

Donations

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $250. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in the Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

Donations listed below were received between July 16 and August 15.
