FROM THE RABBI - Rabbi Bryan Mann

Judaism and Joy

What is one of the most significant moments of joy in your life? I asked this question to those who joined us for our Lifelong Learning session on joy.

In his book Judaism's 10 Best Ideas, Rabbi Arthur Green writes, "Imagine a religion that begins with 'God wants you to be happy!' Beware of anything that threatens to take away your joy. In the end it will probably take you away from God as well. Simcha or joy is the attitude towards life Judaism tries to instill."

He continues:

Joy is a gift that comes to people in different measures. Some folks seem to be blessed with a radiant personality that fills up with joy at the slightest stimulation. Even living with what appear to be the heaviest burdens does not dampen their spirit. For others achieved joy represents a lifelong struggle against a natural tendency toward depression. Moments of true joy in such lives are rare and long treasured; we have to cultivate them, nourish them, make them grow.

Torah teaches us to serve God in simcha, in joy.<sup>1</sup> For some of us who feel it seems so simple. It is easy to tap into the joys of the natural world, joys our friends and family provide, and other joys we experience regularly. We bring that joy with us in prayer, in study, in acts of hesed, lovingkindness thereby serving God through joy.

For others joy feels so incredibly distant, so hard to tap into. We might be able to tap into it on special occasions like birthdays, graduations, holidays, weddings, retirements. For others it might be that concert, show, vacation... we have been looking forward to for a long time that sparks joy.

According to Rabbi Green joy is something that is stimulated, achieved, cultivated, nourished, grown. In other words, it takes work. The question is: how do we as individuals and as a community support each other in that work? What can we do to help each other tap into the sources of joy in our lives?

FROM THE SECOND VICE PRESIDENT - Toby Koch

Thanking a Valuable Member

This column is usually reserved for the president's article. This month I am writing the article. As many of you already know, Ricki Bauman has chosen to step down from her leadership role at Congregation Beth Shalom but will continue as a member of congregational family. So, at this time, I wish to use this column to shout out a BIG THANK YOU to Ricki Bauman for her service to Congregation Beth Shalom!

Ricki has only been a member of Congregation Beth Shalom for 2 1/2 years but has contributed so much. Immediately upon joining us, she jumped into all aspects of congregational life. She attended all worship services and joined the Ritual, Interfaith, and Inclusion committees. When there was no one to take on the chair of the Lifelong Learning Committee, she agreed. She even served as a Lifelong Learning presenter upon the departure of Rabbi Torop. She led so many of our worship services. Using her experience from other congregations, she helped Gerry Pliner and me with a proposed update of the by-laws. Additionally, she was actively involved in the rabbi search activities.

Despite the illness of her beloved Harriette and Harriette's untimely death, Ricki agreed to take on the presidency effective June 1, 2018. The board and congregants all trusted in her ability to lead us into the future. Being president of the board of directors is performing a mitzvah. The president's job can be very rewarding, but it can also be very challenging. Despite her personal challenges and congregational concerns, she persevered and took on so many tasks. She became an active participant on every committee and continued to lead the Lifelong Learning Committee. She was actively engaged in the hiring of Rabbi Bryan Mann and making him feel welcome at CBS. She became involved with the religious school this summer. She provided educational resources, offered suggestions, and dedicated many hours to working with Sheila Fishman to recreate our religious school. She also served as co-teacher of the 4th- and 5th-graders. During the High Holy Days, we learned that the Union for Reform Judaism was closing down the existing website and requiring all congregations to adopt the new website format. Ricki took on that task single-handedly.

Finally, we are amazed by her knowledge. Those of us who have been fortunate enough to work with Ricki know how smart she is. She is exceptionally knowledgeable of Torah, Jewish history, traditions, and Jewish values. She initiated the reading of Torah during our Friday night worship service. Not only did she read the Hebrew passages, but she also translated the text for us. She was always so willing to share her knowledge from our youngest member in the religious school to the oldest member attending a service or Lifelong Learning event.

As the preceding presentation reveals, Ricki Bauman has been an integral part of our lives for the past 2 1/2 years. She has done so much for CBS in a short time. We thank you. We wish you the best. We hope that your future life with CBS is long and worthwhile.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE — Sheila Fishman

At the January 8th board meeting, I was asked to serve as chair of the Nominating Committee for 2019. It is my duty to appoint two members from the board and three members not on the board to assist me in developing a slate of officers. This committee will be presented to the board at the February 5th meeting. During the month of February, the nominating committee will develop a slate of officers for presentation at the March 5th board meeting for approval.

The board secretary will publish the approved slate of officers in the April edition of The Kibbitzer. Members may submit a name in nomination. Such nominations for any selected office or member-at-large may be made by written petition of five members in good standing of the congregation and filed with the board secretary. The signed petition must be filed with the secretary at least 20 days prior to the annual meeting in May.

Officers and members-at-large of the board are elected by a majority vote of the members of the congregation in good standing at the annual meeting in May.

The newly elected officers and members-at-large will begin their terms as of the June board meeting.

Sheila Fishman

EDUCATION— Sheila Fishman

Tu B'Shvat Celebration

Parents, students and teachers enjoy our Tu B'Shvat Seder at religious school in January. Students also planted parsley as part of the celebration.

Upcoming Program Focuses on Mitzvahs

For the month of February, religious school is open all Sundays except for Feb. 17. For Feb. 3 and Feb. 24, classes are available for grades 2-7. The school day will begin with a morning worship service with Rabbi Bryan.

At the religious school, we envision the addition of a three-prong Mitzvah Program over the next calendar year. Therefore, on Sunday, Feb. 10, we will be offering our first Mitzvah Day for all students from kindergarten through 7th grade. With our first program, we will be addressing the caring for those less fortunate than us. We are finalizing arrangements for speakers from community-based programs. There will also be a hands-on activity for our students. As always, parents are encouraged to attend.

Subsequent programs will be designed to introduce our students and parents to Caring for Unprotected Animals and Caring for Our Environment.

- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.
- Youth Group Fund: a fund that supports the ongoing engagement of post b'nai mitzvah youth, providing meaningful and fun experiences for our teens, and keeping them connected to their Jewish community.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $250. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in The Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

Simchat Shabbat!

Come celebrate your birthday or anniversary with us! A special Shabbat service is held every month to honor all our joys for that month. For this month it will be:

February 15

The dates listed for the Yahrzeits are adjusted yearly according to the Jewish Calendar and may not necessarily coincide with the common date of death. Names are read for Kaddish at the Shabbat before the actual date. If you would like to have the common date listed, please contact the temple office.

ATTENTION! We send The Kibbitzer out online. This change has been made to help decrease one of our expenses at Beth Shalom.

However, if you prefer receiving your Kibbitzer via the US Mail, please call the Temple at (813) 681-6547 or e-mail the Temple (cbs-admin@hotmail.com) to tell us you do not want to get your Kibbitzer online.
