FROM THE RABBI - Rabbi Bryan Mann

Elul: Start Your Day With Shofar

The month of Elul is upon us. This month is seen as a month of spiritual preparation for the High Holidays. There are many ways one could do this. Tradition invites us to recite Psalm 27 every day of Elul, visit the graves of our ancestors, spend time in self-reflection, and sound the shofar every day of Elul leading up to the High Holidays.

The shofar has many different resonances in Jewish tradition. Saddiah Gaon, an influential Jewish spiritual leader in the Middle Ages, offers ten ways the shofar could be interpreted as:

1. Reminiscent of the Coronation of a King
2. Stirring of Our Conscience
3. The Revelation at Mount Sinai
4. The Exhortations of the Prophets
5. Reminder of the Temple's Destruction
6. Symbolic of the Ram Abraham Sacrificed
7. Summons us to Feel Humility
8. Reminder of Judgment Day
9. Foreshadows Return from Exile
10. Foreshadows Coming of the Messiah

You can read more about the interpretations here: www.myjewishlearning.com/article/decoding-the-shofar/e.

The shofar also represents a wail. A cry. A prayer beyond words. As Rabbi Art Green writes in his book, Seek My Face:

The dream of restored wholeness is sounded out dramatically by the shofar blasts, the central symbolic expression of the teshuva season. The shofar represents prayer beyond words, an intensity of longing that can be articulated only in a wordless shout. But the order of the sounds, according to one old interpretation, contains the message in quite explicit terms. Each series of shofar blasts begins with teki'ah, a whole sound. It is followed by shevarim, a tripartite broken sound whose very name means "breakings." "I started off whole," the shofar speech says, "and I became broken." Then follows teru'ah, a staccato series of blast fragments saying: "I was entirely smashed to pieces." But each series has to end with a new tekiah, promising wholeness once more. The shofar cries out a hundred times ... I was whole, I was broken, even smashed to bits, but I shall be whole again!"

Throughout Elul and culminating with Yom Kippur, we are invited to deeply reflect on the past year. How did I do? Where did I fail? Where did I succeed? What do I hope to shift or change for the coming year? Who did I hurt? Who did I love? How can I repair that hurt? How can I love better? This is the process the shofar invites us into with its wail, its promise of wholeness every morning.

(For those who cannot blow shofar, you can always find videos or recordings of shofar blowing to listen to throughout Elul. Another reflective practice is journaling and mediating. Jewels of Elul is an once a day emailed reflection you can sign up for at <http://www.jewelsofelul.com/receive-a-jewel-a-day/>)

FROM THE PRESIDENT - Jon Ellis

L'shana tova

As 5780 approaches, I want to wish you and your family a happy New Year and look forward to having you celebrate the High Holy Days with Congregation Beth Shalom of Brandon. On behalf of the congregation, its board of directors and me, personally, I want to recognize that we are far from perfect and we do make mistakes. To the extent that we have wronged you, offended you, slighted you in any way or done something hurtful, please accept my heartfelt apology. If there is something I don't know about that hurt you or something which you think we could do better, please just let me know. I want to hear what you have to say. We, as a congregation, want to and can improve. We need to ensure Congregation Beth Shalom is a place which you enjoy and where you feel at home.

We remain committed to making Congregation Beth Shalom the center of Jewish life in Brandon and eastern Hillsborough County. This has been our mission since the congregation was formed 29 years ago. We are dedicated to providing not only a physical location, but a place for our community to learn (Torah), pray (Avodah) and serve (G'milut Chasadim). We are committed to families in which only one spouse is Jewish to be welcoming and respectful to the non-Jewish spouse. We are committed to teaching our children what it means to be Jewish, our traditions, and to ensure we are doing what is needed so the next generation can carry on the traditions and beliefs that have been established over the past 5,000 years.

We are also committed to standing strong in our community against anti-Semitism and discrimination of any kind. And in these days, we need to stand strong against the increasing attacks against the State of Israel and be sure our community understands the issues, can advocate for Israel when needed, and understands when anti-Israel rhetoric crosses a line and becomes anti-Semitic.

But to do this, we desperately need your assistance. We need help not only maintaining our building, a building that now needs a new roof, air conditioner repairs, and other maintenance but also for our programming and services we offer our community. This year the congregation is facing greater financial pressure than it has faced since I have been a member. To the extent, you are donating this year, please give some thought to substantially increasing the gift you made last year.

This year we again have an generous anonymous donor who will match new and increased under the same terms as last year.

Please give some thought to what would be meaningful increase of your gift last year and consider making that gift. And, if you are in a position that you are truly unable to give any gift, even $18, we understand and want to assure you that you remain an important member of our community.

Dinner With The Tribe

Our Jewish family at Congregation Beth Shalom enjoys good food. Many thanks go to Judy Jacobson for her efforts in making our Dinner With The Tribe a success.

I am taking over where Judy has left off. I will be looking for places that are in the Brandon area or nearby, are moderately priced, with good food. I hope to find places we can enjoy and that will contribute to entertainment and bonding between temple members, our Jewish family here. If you have any recommendations on places to go, that would be much appreciated.

In order to get a good handle on events, I ask that you

- Send an email to niewdnarb@yahoo.com if you plan to attend.
- I confirm the reservation with the restaurant two days prior to the event. Should you need to cancel, for any reason, please let me know via email that you will not be there before I confirm. It is courteous and fair to the group and restaurant, so they don't set up for more than they need to or lose business from others they may have turned away to accommodate our group.
- Friends and family are welcome, as long as we know to expect them.

Our next excursion is:

Tuesday, Sept. 17, at 6 p.m.
Bonefish Grill, 1015 Providence Road, Brandon

They have a three-course meal for a very reasonable price available on their "Hooked on Tuesdays." Or you can always choose from their regular menu. The food is good, healthy, in a nice atmosphere, with good service.

Let's get together, let me know you'll be there.

Anita Clifford

CONGREGATION RETREAT

Save The Date!

Saturday, Dec. 7, from 9 a.m. until after lunch!

Congregation Beth Shalom's annual retreat helps members of the congregation--and interested community members - explore the nuances of worship in a fun and relaxed environment.

This year, the retreat committee has planned a half-day event on Saturday, Dec. 7, beginning at 9 a.m., and extending through a luncheon at a local restaurant.

During our time together, we will explore the Saturday morning service as conceived by the Union of Reform Judaism.

Then understanding the different elements of the service, we will construct our own Saturday morning Shabbat worship service and share it together as a community. Our explorations will end with a dutch-treat luncheon at a local restaurant.

Mark your calendar today for Saturday, Dec. 7. All are welcome - including children of all ages. Please RSVP to Christine Stockelman or Julie Enszer with your interest.

Please look for more information in subsequent editions of The Kibbitzer and online.

A Note About Pastoral Care

Rabbi Bryan wants to know when congregants are in need of pastoral care. This includes but is not limited to: when our congregants or their family members are in the hospital, recently lost a loved one, or otherwise may need his support.

If you hear about a congregant in need, please contact Rabbi Bryan directly at rabbibryanmann@gmail.com and/or 857 728 4792. Do not assume just because you told another congregant, a board member, or even Jenny that Rabbi Bryan knows who is in need of pastoral care.

LIFELONG LEARNING — Janice Perelman

• Saturday, Sept. 7, at 10 a.m., Taste of Tanakh will focus on (Parshat Shoftim): Pursuing Justice. Parshat Shoftim contains the famous lines צדק צדק תרדך zedek tzedk tirdof justice, justice, you must pursue. It also teaches us, “You shall not judge unfairly nor show partiality.” We will explore how rabbis ancient and modern understand these verses and how they relate to our lives today.

• Sunday, Sept. 15, at 3 p.m., our Let’s Chat topic will be New Beginnings. Elul is the month we prepare for the Rosh Hashanah the New Year and Yom Kippur the Day of Atonement. It is a month for self-reflection on the previous year and look ahead to the year to come. Whether a new year, a new job, a new school, a new love, a new child, a new place, or something else, we deal with newness all of the time. Let’s chat about some of the challenges that come with newness, some of the hopes that come with newness and potentially look at Jewish wisdom on newness.

• Lifelong Learning is also developing a winter series of lectures and discussions about the realities of aging entitled “We’re Not Getting any Younger!” Topics which this series will address include the following:

- They’re Aiming at Me!, the sandwich generation
- Making Memories, leaving your legacy, writing memoirs

Rosh Hodesh, offered by Andrea B. Chassen

Months begin and end. In our calendar each month begins as the moon fades into blackness and begins to reemerge with a sliver of light. Rosh Hodesh, the new month, is a symbol of renewal. Thus, we can also use this time to look at ourselves, embrace a new view and start anew have been interested in joining a group of like-minded women who want to further their understanding of Jewish traditions and practice while continuing to grow and evolve.

So, when one cannot join a group, why not start one? That brings me to 2019. I am planning a monthly program that will be based this year on Moonbeams: A Hadassah Rosh Hodesh Guide. Each session will center on a topic and explore it more deeply.

Rosh Hodesh is open to all women in our community and in your lives who have an interest in learning more. We will convene after the new year. Hope to see all there.

- Navigating the Legal Labyrinth, a detailed examination of elder law issues
- Where is the best place to live?, selecting the most appropriate environment
- Remains of the Day, options and choices for the end-of-life

This special series will begin in early 2020 and will continue monthly on dates yet to be decided. We will be examining the needs of our aging population, as well as of their adult children, and the resources which may be available to address them. Anyone wishing to share in planning for this series is welcome to drop in at our next Life Long Learning Committee meeting. We welcome new ideas about the content of our presentations, as well as your recommendations regarding talented people who can help lead those discussions.

Please contact Janice Perelman at chinadollip@verizon.net if you have any questions or ideas about any of our Lifelong Learning topics or programs.

EDUCATION— Sheila Fishman

Ongoing Registration

We are still accepting registration for our Sunday school. Please contact Sheila Fishman gold17@verizon.net or 813-833-7843.

We meet Sunday mornings through mid-May 2020 from 9:30 a.m. to noon. During our sessions, we offer our students:

- Weekly worship services with Rabbi Bryan,
- An understanding of our religious holidays with special hands on programs,
- Presentation of our Jewish history dating back to the Biblical period up to the present,
- An introduction to our Great Biblical leaders,
- And learning of our Jewish values allowing them to become righteous adults capable of making good decisions.

Religious School Incentive Program

We have instituted an incentive program for all students. We will be recognizing students in three areas.

- Worship Service Attendance: A student must attend a minimum of ten services from Aug. 18, through May 3, 2020 to be recognized. That translate to one service per month.
- Religious School Attendance: A student must attend 100% of religious school classes from Aug. 18, through May 3, 2020 for their grade level.
- Outstanding Mitzvah Award: An award will be given to one student in each class who regularly performs a mitzvah for a member of their Jewish or non-Jewish community.

At the end of year school program May 17, 2020, awards and gift cards will be given out to students in the above categories.

Chai 2 Program

We have implemented this program for young families with preschool age children (ages 3-5) to maintain a family membership at a savings of 80% of our family dues. This translates to $360 annually. This amount will stay in place until such time as the family's youngest child reaches school age or approximately 6 years old. We are also offering an incentive to these families for these young students for the next year. Please share this information with family and friends.

L'Dor Vador

In catering to the needs of our diverse community, we introduced a new program we refer to as "L'Dor Vador" for students age 11 - 16 who have not been a Bar or Bat Mitzvah. It is our goal to pass on our traditions from generation to generation. This will be a special 2-year program culminating with the b'nai mitzvah. These students will be meeting during regular religious school hours. With the final 9 months of the program, the students will also be attending private tutoring to specifically prepare for their b'nai mitzvah. Attendance in this program requires membership at Congregation Beth Shalom. Please share this information with family and friends.

Religious School Dates In September

- Grades 2-7: Sept. 8, 15, 22
- Pre-K – 1st: Sept. 8, 22

2019-2020 Confirmation Information

All are welcome to participate in the spiritually meaningful High Holiday services this year at CBS for free. Join our community to celebrate this important time with complimentary tickets for all who request them. Please contact our synagogue office at 813-681-6547 for tickets.

Shalom! As we approach the beginning of another Jewish year, we take time to reflect on the past year and how we have lived our lives as Jews. Our congregation continues to be a Jewish home for our community. As we enter 5780, we have the opportunity to consider our past, change our present, and build for the future. May the coming year be lived in a Jewishly meaningful way.

The High Holidays are always a busy time at Congregation Beth Shalom.

Included is our High Holiday schedule. I encourage you to attend the Selichot service and all of our High Holiday services, led by our rabbi, Rabbi Bryan Mann, and Cantorial Soloist Sandy Santucci. We will again offer our full complement of services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, including children's/family services for both holidays. Immediately following Yom Kippur, we celebrate Sukkot under the stars and then close the High Holiday season with our Simchat Torah celebration. Again this year we will be celebrating Sukkot with special activities for our youth who, we hope, will bring a friend with them as a celebration of welcoming ushpizim (guests) as part of Sukkot.

You should be receiving your High Holiday packets in the mail, where you will find schedule/tickets. We will not be distributing lanyards this year and using the tickets as name tags, but we ask that you please bring the tickets to temple during the High Holidays for admission to services as a security measure. The packet will also include additional information about High Holiday traditions and customs, as well as our usual materials, including information about our Tree of Life and yahrzeit plaque opportunities.

Also, for those who observe Yizkor, PLEASE remember to fill out the Book of Remembrance (BOR) form and follow the instructions for returning it. Add any new names you wish to have read as part of the service. If you had names included in the book last year, you should have had those names included with your BOR form in this year's packet. Please take a moment to check the names and spellings to ensure there are no errors (if there are, please correct and return—if there are not, please still return the form!). Copies of this form can be found on the CBS website www.bethshalom-brandon.org, and the High Holiday packet, and can be obtained at the synagogue.

Finally, be sure to look at the upcoming weekly email blasts and our congregational Facebook page for special High Holiday information. If you have High Holiday questions or needs, please feel free to contact me as ritual chair at sslavkin50@gmail.com.

PAGE TURNERS

Monday, Sept. 16, at 6 p.m., Page Turners will once again meet. We will be discussing The Weight of Ink by Rachel Kadish.

Set in London of the 1660s and of the early 21st century, The Weight of Ink is the interwoven tale of two women of remarkable intellect: Ester Velasquez, an emigrant from Amsterdam who is permitted to scribe for a blind rabbi, just before the plague hits the city; and Helen Watt, an ailing historian with a love of Jewish history. As the novel opens, Helen has been summoned by a former student to view a cache of 17th-century Jewish documents newly discovered in his home during a renovation. Enlisting the help of Aaron Levy, an American graduate student as impatient as he is charming, and in a race with another fast-moving team of historians, Helen embarks on one last project: to determine the identity of the documents' scribe, the elusive "Aleph." Electrifying and ambitious, sweeping in scope and intimate in tone, The Weight of Ink is a sophisticated work of historical fiction about women separated by centuries and the choices and sacrifices they must make in order reconcile the life of the heart and mind.

This book became a USA Today bestseller. It was winner of a National Jewish Book Award, winner of the Association of Jewish Libraries Jewish Fiction Award, an Amazon Best Book of the Year, one of Ms. Magazine's "Bookmark" titles, and one of The Jewish Exponent's "2017's Top Reads."

Rachel Kadish, is the author, most recently, of the novel Tolstoy Lied: A Love Story. Among her many honors are a Koret Award, a Pushcart Prize, and citations in the 1997 and 2003 editions of The Best American Short Stories. Her work has been published in Zoetrope: All-Story, Tin House, Story, Bomb, Moment, Sh'ma, Congress Monthly, and Lilith. Kadish, a graduate of Princeton University, earned her M.A. in fiction writing at New York University. She lives in Newtonville, Massachusetts.

Please RSVP to Sheila Fishman at gold17@verizon.net. A light dinner will be served before the discussion.

DONATIONS

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.
- Youth Group Fund: a fund that supports the ongoing engagement of post b'nai mitzvah youth, providing meaningful and fun experiences for our teens, and keeping them connected to their Jewish community.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $350. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in The Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
