A New Year's Resolution!

January always brings with it a sense of newness. We're turning the calendar and writing "2021" on our documents. I saw a clever post the other day: "May your joy last longer than your New Year's resolutions." They say, "Nothing succeeds like success"; progress inspires and motivates. Of course, that also means nothing is more discouraging than when we fall short. It's often quite easy to measure how well we've lived up to our goals, because there is a number attached: pounds lost, days at the gym, new friends made, clients engaged, money invested, etc. Perhaps, if we were to find success in some of the less tangible goals, it would brighten the year in a different way.

While I think of myself as a positive person, hardly a day goes by when I can't find some kind of complaint. Bothersome, annoying things stand out and sometimes can ruin otherwise wonderful experiences. I know thinking more positively will add to my happiness. If more of us looked first for what's going right than what's going wrong, we would all be happier. Not only would we feel better inside, but more people would be inspired to also see the good side of things. Complaining, we know, can be contagious; so can compliments.

I sometimes wonder if people would feel better about religion if the terminology didn't seem so restrictive. The Ten Commandments, our most recognizable teaching, are filled with "don'ts" and "Thou Shalt Nots" (especially the second five). What if the last five of the Ten Commandments emphasized what to DO rather than what NOT to do? For instance:

- 6] "Thou Shalt Not Commit Murder" could be ... "Honor and Respect Human Life"
- 7] "Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery" could be ... "Be Faithful to Your Promises"
- 8] "Thou Shalt Not Steal" could be ... "Respect Other People's Property"
- 9] "Thou Shalt Not Bear False Witness" could be ... "Be Truthful"
- 10] "Thou Shalt Not Covet" could be ... "Be Happy With What You Have"

Many find the last commandment the most difficult because it legislates a feeling: jealousy. Our Talmudic sages in Pirkei Avot 4:1 address that by saying "Who is rich? The one who is happy with his lot." From the time we left Egypt and were called by God "a stiff-necked people," we've certainly been used to complaining. But the New Year gives us an opportunity to think differently. I believe when we replace complaining with positive thinking, it will make a difference to us and those around us. Am I sure? I'm positive!

And so, as the month of Kislev and the festival of lights are behind us, let us not allow that light to diminish. Actually, there is great symbolism in the Chanukah menorah as we begin the new year. What's the symbolism? As we leave 2020 (and what a year it's been!) and head into the new year of 2021, let us find new ways to share the light of Judaism with all we come in contact with; family, friends... even strangers we meet in our daily walk. Nancy and I wish you a most healthy and joyous new year!

Reb Tuvia*

FROM THE 2ND VICE PRESIDENT - Toby Koch

Greetings everyone and Happy New Year. It goes without saying that we are all excited to see 2021. Think positive thoughts and they will all come true. I wish everyone a healthy and happy year.

In March of 2020 we were forced to close our doors and stop worship services in our sanctuary. So, what do you do on Friday nights? Do you go out to dinner? Do you go to the movies or a show? How about visiting friends and family? Maybe you just stay home and watch TV. I like to spend of my Friday evenings with Sandy Santucci. Sandy is one of the most positive people I know. Sandy has a stressful job, working at a children's clinic, yet every Shabbat she brings her energy and positive attitude to our services. She brings us joy by choosing songs and melodies to sing at our services. For the past 10 months we joined Sandy using technology, Zoom and Facebook. For a little over an hour each Friday night we connect with Sandy. Then Reb Tuviah joined us in July. He contributed his talents: his voice, his guitar playing and his knowledge of Judaism. Together they up lift us as individuals and as a group.

Many of you did not like looking at squares on a computer screen or an iPad; even though Sandy and Reb Tuviah worked hard to bring us together. Some of you wanted more. Following the CDC guidelines, we have to keep our doors closed. We found a way to connect with members that were looking for "in person" services. Starting Friday, Jan. 8, and every other Friday night following, we will be holding service in our backyard. CDC guidelines will be strictly followed. Masks are required. We will have a special parking area for those who wish to stay in their cars. Now you can enjoy Sandy's lovely voice in person and Reb Tuviah's rabbinic guidance. As long as the temperature is above 55 degrees, we can worship Shabbat together (bring a flashlight and a blanket). If you need transportation, please call the temple office at 813-681-6547.

We are supposed to social distance so you cannot go out to dinner or see a show or visit with friends but now you have two ways to enjoy Sandy and Reb Tuviah, either online or in our back yard. No excuses. I guarantee you will enjoy the services. I will be looking for you each Shabbat.

January Oneg Schedule

There can be no joy without food and drink. — Talmud, Mo'ed Katan

We hope you and your family are doing well.

The Oneg Committee has not scheduled oneg hosts for the month of January.

Since the temple has been closed for more than three months, we are waiting for our executive board to notify us as soon as they are able to determine at which time they feel it is safe to re-open the synagogue.

We are considering a plan to have "virtual oneg hosts." Please let us know if you are interested in this opportunity to honor a special person or date in your life.

If you have any questions or are interested in hosting an oneg, please contact us (Judith 856-816-2174, and Anna 707-628-5399).

JEWISH COOKING

Wake-Up Chocolate Fruit Kicks

By Deborah R. Prinz

As posted on www.ReformJudiasm.org

These energizing chocolate chunks have a kick to them! These chocolate-coated dried fruit chunks celebrate the seven species of the land of Israel – two grains and five fruits. This recipe uses six of those foods.

Hiker Steve Rock concocted these easy-to-make, healthy treats for starting the day in the outdoors. He cautions that they'll "kick you down the trail a bit."

INGREDIENTS

1 pound dark chocolate, chips or broken into pieces
 1 cup almonds
 1/2 cup raisins, dates, figs, pomegranate, and/or other dried fruit
 1/8 cup coffee beans
 2 teaspoons cayenne pepper, to taste
 1/2 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
 Wheat cereal, barley cereal, granola, oatmeal, or other cereal (optional)

DIRECTIONS

- Line a large baking sheet with parchment paper, aluminum foil, or waxed paper. Melt the chocolate in a large heatproof bowl set over a pan of simmering water. Remove from the heat.
- In a food processor with the chop blade, combine the almonds, raisins, coffee beans, and cayenne. Pulse until coarsely chopped.
- Stir the cocoa into the melted chocolate. Once the mixture is even and getting stiff, add the chopped nuts and fruits; keep stirring. Taste to check the spice level.
- If the mixture is too moist and sticky, add more nuts, granola, or chopped cereal, or wait until firm enough to handle. [Note: Cooling in the refrigerator will firm the mixture faster.]
- Roll the mixture into balls and place on the prepared baking sheet. Cool completely. Dust with cocoa powder or roll in cocoa nibs. Remove from the baking sheet and store in a covered container.

Yield: Approximately 20 chunks

HIGH HOLIDAYS

High Holiday Appeal Drive Ongoing Thru January

Our annual High Holiday pledge drive is ongoing.

Our annual High Holiday appeal is a vital component in supporting Congregation Beth Shalom and its mission to provide a historic center of Jewish Life serving Eastern Hillsborough County.

This past year we have been financially challenged by the cost of our new roof and COVID-19, and we need your help.

A few anonymous donors have already stepped up. They have agreed to match dollar for dollar every amount pledged in this year's Kol Nidre Appeal up to $15,000. If you have not made a meaningful pledge, please consider making one, and if you have already made your pledge

We are still also accepting donations for our congregation food bank. Please bring your non-perishable items or pet food to Simchat Torah or Sukkot, or call the temple office to arrange a time to drop off your items.

please give some thought to increasing it.

Every dollar pledged will raise two dollars toward our $30,000 goal. You can click here to donate <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=4w4Z6D>.

Thank you for your support.

COLLEGE CONNECTION

LIFELONG LEARNING — Janice Perelman

Yes, you're correct in observing that things have been slower than usual in Lifelong Learning at Congregation Beth Shalom. The highlight of the fall and early winter has been Reb Tuvia's wonderful Midrash presentations and the discussions they have evoked from the participants. I for one had not been educated in the source of Mid-rash, tales and explanations of Torah, which provide so many possibilities and supplemental historical happenings.

As the coronavirus vaccine approaches reality and distribution, I hope that we will be able to provide educational opportunities in a real live setting. Meantime, we are in the process of organizing zoom cooking classes. So please bear with us as we segue back into normalcy.

The Lifelong Learning Committee currently consists of the following members: Sheryl Finke, Steven Feldman, Gerald Pliner, Caren Magdovitz, Anita Clifford, and Christine Stockelman. Please feel free to add your name to this list. To join, please write to chinadolljp@verizon.net or call (813) 748-8042.

We always welcome your suggestions for occasions to learn together. Feel free to contact me at chinadolljp@verizon.net or (813) 748-8042.

PAGE TURNERS

Monday, Jan. 18, at 7 p.m., Page Turners will meet to discuss The Take-away Men by Meryl Ain.

With the cloud of the Holocaust still looming over them, twin sisters Bronka and Johanna Lubinski and their parents arrive in the U.S. from a Displaced Persons Camp. In the years after World War II, they experience the difficulties of adjusting to American culture as well as the burgeoning fear of the Cold War. Years later, the discovery of a former Nazi hiding in their community brings the Holocaust out of the shadows. As the girls get older, they start to wonder about their parents' pasts, and they begin to demand answers. But it soon becomes clear that those memories will be more difficult and painful to uncover than they could have anticipated.

Poignant and haunting, The Takeaway Men explores the impact of immigration, identity, prejudice, secrets, and lies on parents and children in mid-Twentieth-Century America.

Topics being considered for these meetings could include:

- how to address modern issues within the text of Jewish law,
- ethical practices,
- the place of Israel in our lives,
- anti-Semitism and racism, and
- other religions.

However, we welcome any suggestions from our youth or their parents.

With your help, the curriculum can be exciting and interesting –and we hope to provide further conversations within families about Judaism and Jewish life.

If you have any suggestions for this program, please reach out to Reb Tuviah at rebtuviah@gmail.com or the temple office.

CONGREGATION COVID-19 DONATION DRIVE

By Mitch Baylis, Fundraising and Toby Koch 2nd VP

Uncle Sam has given most Americans another COVID-19 relief gift. Most of us have already received the direct deposit into our bank accounts. Thank you, Uncle Sam.

During this pandemic, your Congregation Beth Shalom family has been steadily providing help to many of our members and even non-members. We recently helped a mother and her son. She was given food, told how to get clothing for her son and most of all we gave her friendly support. We don't just provide help several times a year, we provide support and care all year long.

Whether it is handing out food from our pantry or a call of comfort from Reb Tuviah, CBS provides care for our community 24/7. From the first days of the pandemic nearly a year ago, we have gone shopping for members, we have delivered needed supplies to those who are home bound, and we improved our ability to provide religious services and Jewish learning safely in our own homes.

WHETHER OR not you receive a stimulus check from the government, we suggest a small donation to support CBS. Any amount is appreciated. As a special incentive, the first 20 members who donate $118 or more to our CBS COVID-19 donation drive will receive a special Judaic gift hand-made in Israel as a show of appreciation. This gift is individually made exclusively for CBS from silver and 2,000-year-old Roman glass. Each one will have a certificate of authenticity. This rare and unique piece of Jewish history is our way to show appreciation for your support. We hope it will share a special place in your home as CBS shares a special place in your heart. We will be adding some pictures of the gift on our Facebook page. You can donate using this link at <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=4w4Z6D>.

Jewish Healing Circle

As humans, we are all in need of healing.

As friends, caregivers, family members, and planetary citizens, we can pray for ourselves and all those in need of healing.

Let us come together to form a healing community through prayer, reflection and song in our tradition.

Thursday, Jan. 14th at 6:00pm
A link will be emailed to all members and friends.

Please join Reb Tuviah and special guest Sue Gurland for an evening of "Healing Through Song & Chant."

Now more than ever,
we need to find that space of healing...
for ourselves, for our country and for our planet.

DONATIONS

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.
- Youth Group Fund: a fund that supports the ongoing engagement of post b'nai mitzvah youth, providing meaningful and fun experiences for our teens, and keeping them connected to their Jewish community.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $350. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in The Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

Donations listed below were received between November 16 and December 15.

The dates listed for the Yahrzeits are adjusted yearly according to the Jewish Calendar and may not necessarily coincide with the common date of death. Names are read for Kaddish at the Shabbat before the actual date. If you would like to have the common date listed, please contact the temple office.
