FROM THE PULPIT

Rabbi Robert Lefkowitz

Shalom! I hope everyone had a wonderful Passover holiday. May the spirit of Passover, the holiday of freedom, continue throughout the entire year. We find ourselves between the holidays of Passover and Shavuot, when G-d gave us the Torah at Mount Sinai. There are 49 days between Passover and Shavuot and we are commanded to count the omer every evening, from the second night of Passover until the night before Shavuot.

We consider the omer as a sort of countdown to demonstrate our excitement in receiving the Torah. In addition, counting the omer gives us a chance to spiritually prepare ourselves. We must strive to grow and improve our spiritual state. We Jews must not be satisfied with who we are, we must always try to set higher goals for ourselves and work towards our continued improvement.

To count the omer, we recite the following blessing. “Blessed are You, Lord our G-d, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments and commanded us concerning the counting of the Omer.” After the blessing, we recite the day of the count. Passover and Shavuot are tied to one another. On the day of our Exodus, we experienced our physical freedom from Egypt. Shavuot is the celebration of receiving the Torah, the time when we Jews entered into a covenant with G-d, or in other words, our spiritual freedom.

The Torah and our relationship with G-d helps to elevate the Jewish People. The Ten Commandments begin with “I am the Lord your G-d who has brought you out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.” G-d gives us elevation and inspiration. A life rich in relationships with the accompanying responsibilities gives our lives meaning, much more so than a life free from any constraints. We live a life with purpose and meaning when living by the laws and guidelines given to us by G-d with the giving of the Torah.

B’ahava, Rabbi Lefkowitz

The President's Corner

Steve Billor

Shalom Everybody,

My theme for the June Kibbitzer is “Links in the Chain”. In my short time as President of Beth Shalom, I have learned so much about the inner workings of our temple. I have always been on the outside, doing my Security Detail for the High Holidays and enjoying Beth Shalom as my spiritual center. As your current President (and staying on for another two (2) years), I have observed the inner workings on how our place of worship operates.

I am very fortunate to have GREAT teachers/mentors who have selflessly given to the temple in leadership roles for many years, some since our temple's inception.

One of the things I have learned in my other leadership positions in my lifetime, (Military and Law Enforcement) is that we are all “links in a chain” and that old saying, “we are only as strong as our weakest link” is so very true. As for myself, I have strengths and weaknesses. With my weaknesses, I rely on other members of the temple membership to assist me. With my strengths, I offer my skillset to help them with areas that they are not strong in. This, in my opinion, is paramount to Judaism. In my humble opinion, I would love to see us all be positive with each other, accepting of each other's flaws and celebrating their strengths. We are a small congregation of diverse histories and philosophies as well as Jews who love to debate and disagree. I believe the latter is built into our “Jewish DNA”. It is our fervent wish that we can all mingle/associate with each other as if we are one family. Have respectful discussions and debates/disagreements and end on a loving and positive note. I am giving my Temple Beth Shalom family all I have to offer within the constraints of doing the same for “my” family (wife and children) and hope you all can do the same. Let's keep moving forward, grow our membership and help as many others as is possible. If we do these small things, I believe we will all be more fulfilled and spiritually satisfied.

Sunday, June 12th
at 11:30 AM

In June we're stepping out! Whether you are a member at CBS or not, let's get together! First we'll have brunch at The Beach House, then we can go to the beach.

Set on 650 feet of pristine Gulf front beach, the old Harbor House restaurant was purchased in 1993 by Ed Chiles. His vision of a moderately priced restaurant serving great seafood both indoors and outdoors transformed into what is the Beach House Restaurant. Today the location features a climate friendly outdoor deck providing beautiful ocean-front vistas and signature Anna Maria Island sunsets on display every evening.

We'd love to have to join us, but you will have to act quickly because it's high season on Anna Maria Island. We are limited to 20 people. Write to Anita Clifford to confirm your spot. niewdnarb@yahoo.com

There was a great turn out for last month's Dinner with The Tribe.

Join us for our next event, where we have lunch then go to the beach!

People Love Dead Jews

by Dara Horn

Monday, August 15th at 7:00 PM

Winner of the 2021 National Jewish Book Award for Contemporary Jewish Life and Practice
Finalist for the 2021 Kirkus Prize in Nonfiction

Our next meeting will be Monday, August 15th at 7:00 PM. This will give everyone more than enough time to read this month's pick.

Here is the description of the book on Amazon.

“Renowned and beloved as a prizewinning novelist, Dara Horn has also been publishing penetrating essays since she was a teenager. Often asked by major publications to write on subjects related to Jewish culture—and increasingly in response to a recent wave of deadly antisemitic attacks—Horn was troubled to realize what all of these assignments had in common: she was being asked to write about dead Jews, never about living ones. In these essays, Horn reflects on subjects as far-flung as the international veneration of Anne Frank, the mythology that Jewish family names were changed at Ellis Island, the blockbuster traveling exhibition Auschwitz, the marketing of the Jewish history of Harbin, China, and the little-known life of the "righteous Gentile" Varian Fry. Throughout, she challenges us to confront the reasons why there might be so much fascination with Jewish deaths, and so little respect for Jewish lives unfolding in the present.

Horn draws upon her travels, her research, and also her own family life—trying to explain Shakespeare’s Shylock to a curious ten-year-old, her anger when swastikas are drawn on desks in her children’s school, the profound perspective offered by traditional religious practice and study—to assert the vitality, complexity, and depth of Jewish life against an antisemitism that, far from being disarmed by the mantra of “Never forget,” is on the rise. As Horn explores the (not so) shocking attacks on the American Jewish community in recent years, she reveals the subtler dehumanization built into the public piety that surrounds the Jewish past—making the radical argument that the benign reverence we give to past horrors is itself a profound affront to human dignity.”

Needs:

Canned Fruit
Shampoo
Toothpaste
Soap

We are incredibly pleased that the Food Bank held on Sunday, May 15 was our most generous yet for our food recipients. We were able to serve forty-two families and due to the generous donations received, many of the families received an extra sack of food this month. We also had baby foods and feminine hygiene products available. Thanks to all who so generously donated these items. We need canned fruit and shampoo, toothpaste, soap, and feminine products.

Thank you to Ilene Schwartz and Mark Finke for joining in this month, and all our cooperating agencies for their help in meeting the continuing needs of our food bank community.

Our next event is Sunday, June 26th. Please bring any donations, including gift cards from Publix, Winn-Dixie or Wal-Mart, directly to the shul and place them in the receptacles provided or give them to a member of our committee (Meral, Julie, Jewel, Anna, Steve, Linda, Petie). Thank you so much for helping us to make this mitzvah a successful reality!

Shavuot

The word Shavuot means “weeks.” It celebrates the completion of the seven-week Omer counting period between Passover and Shavuot. The Torah was given by G-d to the Jewish people on Mount Sinai on Shavuot more than 3,300 years ago. Every year on the holiday of Shavuot we renew our acceptance of G-d’s gift, and G-d “re-gives” the Torah.

What is Shavuot?

The holiday celebrates the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai as well as a festival of nature and of agriculture grain harvest for the summer. In biblical times, Shavuot was one of three pilgrimage festivals in which all the Jewish men would go to Jerusalem and bring their first fruits as offerings to G-d.

Traditions and Customs

Today, we celebrate Shavuot by going to synagogue to hear the 10 Commandments, having festive meals of dairy foods, and staying up all night to learn and read the Book of Ruth.

The Book of Ruth

Ruth, of the Book of Ruth, was a Moabite woman who became a Jew after the death of her husband. She stays with her mother-in-law Naomi, and later marries Boaz and becomes an ancestor of King David, whom the Messiah will be a descendant of. Ruth is perhaps the most famous convert in all of Jewish history. Ruth’s story relates to that of the Jewish people, who wanted to be given the Torah and become servants of Hashem.

The Ten Commandments

Adam and Eve were created 3,334 years ago. G-d descended on to Mount Sinai and gave The Ten Commandments.

1. I am the lord your G-d who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of Bondage.
2. You shall have no other G-d's before me.
3. You shall not take The Name of The Lord your G-d in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath Day and to keep it Holy.
5. Honor your father and mother.
6. You shall not murder,
7. You shall not commit adultery.
8. You shall not steal.
9. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's house or your neighbor's wife, maidservant, ox, or donkey, nor anything that is your neighbors.

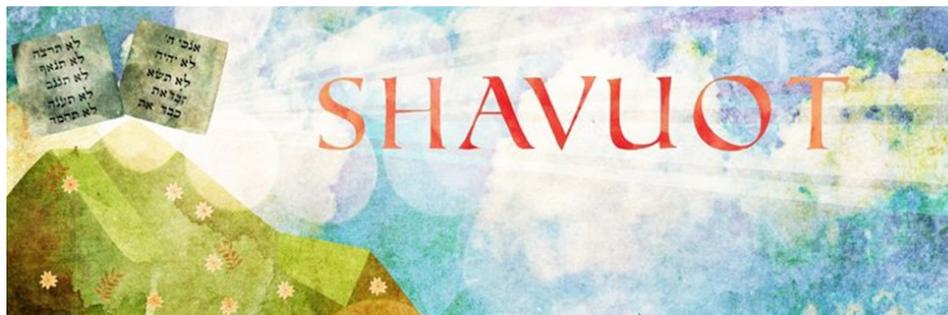

Chag Samayach, Rabbi Lefkowitz

Shavuot Celebration

Cheesecake, Blintzes & Ice Cream

Shavuot is a holiday commemorating the giving of the Torah to the Israelites. We will be celebrating Shavuot on Friday June 3, 2022. There will be a short Erev Shabbat service starting at 6pm followed by a Pot Luck dinner. For Shavuot we traditionally eat dairy. We need more than ice cream, cheese cake and blintzes. How about kugel, Quiche, salad, veggies? You choose what you want to bring. Most importantly, just come and bring the children.

Making Prayer Real

Multi-Session Course

The Making Prayer Real Course, created by Rabbi Mike Comins, offers an innovative, spiritual dynamics approach to learning prayer and liturgy. Outstanding teachers are brought into the classroom via video, beginning a conversation that challenges students and draws them into dialogue with prayer, the Siddur, and each other.

Where is God in Reform Judaism?

Multi-Session Course

For over 3,000 years, Judaism has claimed a unique insight into the nature of God. But that insight has evolved together with the stories of our people. In the most recent centuries, the Reform Movement emerged as a religious response to modernity. But modern events and ideas, from the Holocaust to the State of Israel and the digital revolution have challenged us to ask: "Where is God in Reform Judaism?"

Rav's Turntables

Single-Session Classes

Spark your imagination for any Torah study or d'var Torah, by stopping first at Rav's Turntables. Rav's Turntables is organized by the weekly Torah portions.

Why Bother? Judaism in the Age of Choice

Teen Multi-Session Course

In this interactive online course for teens, we invite students to discover Judaism's special place in the world. For too long, we have treated the choices of modern life as a risk for Jewish continuity. "Why Bother?" flips the conversation. We welcome that wider world – secular and religious alike – to engage with Judaism. The result is a kaleidoscope of new perspectives on Judaism's vibrant contributions to society.

Jewish Movies to Watch on a Rainy Day

By MOMENT Magazine Staff

Exodus \(1960\)

Nadine Epstein, Editor-In-Chief and CEO

I used to watch it on TV on rainy days when I was a kid. I feel this movie was seminal in shaping the American view of Israel. Jews have a lot to thank Hollywood for!

The Producers \(1968\)

Ellen Wexler, Eugene M. Grant Fellow

It's a chaotic, feverish comedy—and it's always a joy to watch the absurdity of Gene Wilder and Zero Mostel's performance.

Funny Girl \(1968\)

Ellen Meltzer, Director of Marketing & Community Outreach

Call me sentimental, but I absolutely love Funny Girl. There are scenes that give me chills and others that make me laugh. I particularly like the one when Omar Sharif says they should get married.

Blazing Saddles \(1974\)

Johnna Miller Raskin, Assistant to the Editor

Directed by Mel Brooks, this is a family favorite with Gene Wilder, Harvey Korman, Madeline Kahn, Richard Pryor and so many actors who brilliantly satirize the ridiculousness of racism in Hollywood's Western movies.

Young Frankenstein \(1974\)

Pat Lewis, Senior Development Associate

Because he is the quintessential Jewish doctor...and Terri Garr is the ultimate shiksa.

The Frisco Kid \(1979\)

Noah Phillips, Rabbi Harold S. White Fellow

It's Gene Wilder as a Hasidic rabbi in the Old West, with Harrison Ford as his bank robber sidekick—isn't it kind of obvious why this would be my favorite Jewish movie?

An American Tail \(1986\)

Dina Gold, Senior Editor

It's an uplifting story of an immigrant family, encapsulating all the hopes newcomers bring with them to the U.S. As a new immigrant myself, I wholly identify with it, especially Fievel the mouse!

Spaceballs \(1987\)

Ross Bishton, Digital Marketing

The Schwartz is strong with Spaceballs; going plaid never gets old.

Crossing Delancey \(1988\)

Eileen Lavine, Senior Editor

The guy had a pickle shop and the girl wanted to be an intellectual—but they end up together. In those days, movies had happy endings!

Avalon \(1990\)

Suzanne Borden, Special Projects manager

It is about a multi-generational family dealing with the changing times. While Avalon takes place in the 1950s, it continues to be relevant and relatable in 2017.

Nowhere in Africa \(2001\)

Tanya George, Associate Publisher

It's about a Jewish family who fled Germany for Kenya just before the Jews were rounded up. It's a long, lovely story that follows their adaptation to a new land and culture as seen mostly through the eyes of their young daughter.

Ushpizin \(2004\)

Debbie Sann, Director of Community Affairs

It is hilarious, unpredictable and tugs at your heartstrings all at once. It embodies all of what Israel is and what makes it such a special place.

Walk on Water \(2004\)

Terry Grant, Senior Editor

It's a moving and intimate portrait of a Mossad agent's efforts to hunt down and kill an aging Nazi war criminal. The Israeli assassin is brilliantly played by broodingly handsome Israeli actor Lior Ashkenazi. The film treats a serious topic with a light touch.

GERRY NEEDS OUR HELP

Gerry Pliner has been a member of CBS since 2007. During the 15 years he has served on the Board of Directors as First Vice President; acting President, twice and acting Treasurer. He unselfishly gives his time and energy to our congregation. Now he needs help from us.

Below is a copy of heart wrenching Face Book post written by Gerry's niece.

“My name is Andria Armato and I am writing this message with hope that social media can work its magic this holiday season! My Uncle Gerald, my mom's brother, is suffering from severe kidney disease and needs a new kidney as soon as possible. He is on the national donor's list and has been for some time, but as we all know that's not an easy or quick process, especially for a 77 year old man. Our family would do ANYTHING we could to help him, unfortunately none of us are a match for both blood type and other medical reasons. My uncle's blood type is O+ and he has been giving of himself his whole life, so I am hoping an angel somewhere can return the favor and give him the gift of a healthy kidney! Uncle Gerald has given decades of service as a volunteer and also has served as a Board Trustee member for numerous organizations. He was the patriarch of his immediate and extended families as my grandfather passed away long before I was born. In addition, he owned a business in his community where he served other people in need. Uncle Gerald has always taken care of us and others, and now we want to take care of him. If you are reading this and may be interested or know anyone who could be a match and would be willing to save a life, please message me at ..... Thank you all so much and if you are unable to help personally, please share this message and story with all you know....my family and I would be ever so grateful!

Holiday blessings,

Andria Armato”

If any of the readers of this Kibbitzer can help Gerry contact him at gp@pliner-inc.com. Thank you, Toby Koch, Second VP

Classic Cheesecake

Classic Cheesecake by Tori Avey

<https://toriavey.com/toris-kitchen/classic-cheesecake/>

PREP TIME: 30 minutes

COOKING TIME: 4 hours

NOTES

You will also need: Springform pan, parchment paper, food processor, roasting pan for water bath, a teapot.

Crust Ingredients

10 full-size honey graham crackers (1 cup pulverized graham cracker crumbs)
 1/2 cup walnut pieces
 1/4 cup powdered sugar
 1 1/2 tsp cinnamon
 1/4 tsp nutmeg
 Pinch salt
 2 tbsp melted unsalted butter

Cheesecake Ingredients

2 pounds cream cheese (4 bricks)
 4 large eggs
 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
 3/4 cup sour cream
 1/2 cup half and half (or substitute heavy cream)
 1/4 cup sweetened condensed milk
 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
 2 tsp vanilla

About 45 minutes before baking, take the cream cheese out of the refrigerator so it can return to room temperature.

Preheat oven to 325 degrees F. Place a piece of parchment paper over the bottom of a 9 inch springform pan, then seal the springform pan edge around the base. The base should be covered by parchment paper with edges of the paper sticking out from the sides of the pan.

This paper will keep the cheesecake from sticking to the bottom of your pan. Grease the inner sides of the springform pan with butter or cooking spray, making sure the sides are fully coated. Do not spray the parchment paper on the bottom.

IMPORTANT: Make sure your springform pan is fully locked and secure around the parchment paper! There is nothing worse than filling a springform pan with batter and having the pan fall apart or leak on you. If you have an older or lower quality pan that doesn't lock tightly, you may want to cut the parchment paper into a circle to line the bottom rather than letting the edges stick out, so there is no layer of parchment to interfere with the seal.

In a food processor, pulse together graham crackers, powdered sugar, chopped walnuts, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt until a crumbly powder forms (about 30 seconds of processing). Pour the melted butter over the crumbs and continue to process for another 10 seconds. Push the crumbs down the sides of the processor, stir them with a spoon, and continue processing for about 10 more seconds. At the end of processing, crumbs should be evenly darkened/moistened by the butter. Press crumb mixture firmly in an even layer across the bottom of the springform pan.

Thoroughly clean and dry the food processor. Pulse the cream cheese about 10 times, then add the rest of the cheesecake ingredients (eggs, sugar, sour cream, half and half, sweetened condensed milk, flour, and vanilla). Continue to process the ingredients together, using short 1-second pulses to blend the ingredients for about 15 seconds total mixing time. Do not over-mix-- this will cause the cheesecake's texture to change. Filling consistency should be smooth (no lumps), but not watery.

Fill the teapot with water and heat it up on the stovetop. While water is heating, pour the cheesecake filling carefully into the prepared springform pan. Smooth the surface of the cheesecake filling with a spatula or spoon; pop any large bubbles that rise to the surface.

When the teapot boils, carefully fill a wide roasting pan with the hot water (don't burn yourself!). Place the roasting pan on the bottom of the oven and place the springform pan onto the middle rack of the oven above the pan of water. This creates a steamy environment in the oven, which allows the cake to bake more evenly (see note below). Close the oven and bake at 325 degrees F for one hour.

At the end of one hour, take the roasting pan with water out of the oven. Close the oven, turn off the heat, and let the cheesecake cool slowly inside the oven for 3 hours. This slow cooling will prevent the top of the cake from cracking. (If you don't care about cracking, you can cool it out of the oven, which will bring it back to room temperature more quickly.)

After 3 hours, remove the pan from the oven. Let it return to room temperature, then place the cheesecake in the refrigerator and chill for at least 12 hours. Gently remove the cake from the springform pan after it is thoroughly chilled. If using a topping, spread it on after chilling the cake. Serve cold.

Time for a Nosh

The Classic Cheesecake recipe is so long and requires many steps. I've joined the Instant Pot crowd and have made this recipe twice. I am not going to turn the Kibbitzer into a Jewish cookbook, but I did want to give you an easier way to make cheesecake, assuming you have an InstaPot and the small springform pan.

Instant Pot Cheesecake

Yield: 6 servings
 Preparation time: 15 minutes
 Cooking time: 35 minutes
 Chill time: 8 hours

Ingredients

1 cup graham cracker crumbs
 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
 3 tablespoons unsalted butter, melted
 16 ounces cream cheese, room temperature
 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 2 large eggs, room temperature
 1 tablespoon all-purpose flour
 1/4 cup heavy cream
 2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract

Instructions

Tightly wrap the bottom of 7-inch springform pan in foil and spray the inside of the pan with non-stick cooking spray.

In a small mixing bowl, stir together the graham cracker crumbs, sugar, and melted butter. Press the crumbs into the bottom of the prepared pan.

Place pan in freezer for 10-15 minutes.

In the bowl of your stand mixer fitted with the paddle attachment, or in a large bowl with an electric mixer, beat the cream cheese until smooth. Add sugar and mix until combined. Add eggs, one at a time, fully incorporating each before adding the next. Making sure to scrape down the bowl in between each egg. Add in the flour, heavy cream, and vanilla and mix until smooth. Pour batter into prepared pan.

Cover the top of the pan with a piece of foil.

Pour 1 1/2 cups of water into the Instant Pot and place the trivet in the bottom of the pot.

Create a "foil sling" by folding a 20-inch long piece of foil in half lengthwise two times. This "sling" will allow you place and remove the springform pan with ease.

Place the cheesecake pan in the center of the sling and carefully lower the pan into the Instant Pot. Fold down the excess foil from the sling to ensure the pot closes properly. Lock the lid into place and make sure the vent is closed "sealing". Press the "Manual" button and cook on high pressure for 35 minutes. When the Instant Pot beeps, hit the "Keep Warm/Cancel" button to turn off the pressure cooker. Allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes and then do a quick release to release any pressure remaining in the pot.

Carefully unfold the foil sling and remove the cheesecake from the pot to a cooling rack using the foil sling "handles". Uncover the cheesecake and allow it to cool to room temperature. Once the cheesecake has cooled, refrigerate it for at least 8 hours, or overnight. Before serving, top with pie filling and whipped cream if desired.
